UXBRIDGE

Built to combine softness and structure, the Uxbridge single headboard is a simple and elegantly designed, with vertical fluting in different widths, descending from thicker in the middle, to slightly narrower in size on either side, creating a pultruding effect in the centre. Each tubular panel is finished with a piped effect separating each pad, creating additional definition. The plush taupe velvet, along with the clean white piping adds brightness to the room.

The Uxbridge headboard is available as a Single, Small Double, Double, King, Super King and Emperor.
